

Developing an Industrial Park in Chemnitz, Germany

City of Chemnitz

Realisation Period: 2001 - 2005 / 2012 - 2015

Services: Supervising Construction Traffic Infrastructure

Total Investment: 4.5 mill. EUR

In two construction phases (2001-2005 and 2012-2015), the Industrial Park „Wasserschänke“ is developed. The Civil Engineering Department of the City of Chemnitz has contracted AIC for the complex supervising of the construction activities.

To the media and traffic interconnections belongs among others:

- 1,700m provisional road with rain water protection
- 1,700 m rain water drain DN 600
- 1,700 m sewage water drain DN 250
- 2,600 m potable water drain DN 200
- 1,900 m gas pipeline DN 200
- 1,700 m medium voltage trace

